Professor Koch
Agricola Capetown

In reply to your second telegram respecting the two items in my account I beg to say that I telegraphed you a full explanation yesterday. I again repeat that the sum of £ 122 – 17 s was the amount I was forced to pay for the only available cabin for myself and Mrs. Koch on board the Dunottar Castle if I had not done this I should have been compelled to defer my start. I have correspondence relating to this item which I shall be glad to submit to you for your satisfaction the sum of 267 marks was the amount I paid for the carriage from Berlin to London on my luggage amongst which were two heavy cases containing the [restlicher Text fehlt]
