Dear Professor Koch,

I send herewith the annual reports of the Principal Civil Medical Offices for the last few years and also my reports for the Town of Singapore for the last 4 years. I hope you may find what you want in them.

I have also arranged for the collecting of mosquitos in the Town of Singapore and should be glad to know what you would like me to do with them. Shall I send them on to you to Batavia, and if so to what address?

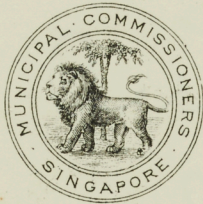

I am sorry we are not to have you in Singapore for a longer period but I hope you will have the best of health in the Far East and every success in your investigations into Malaria.

With kind regards

Believe me

Yours sincerely
